

TOBY OLIVER ACS

DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY Bio Jan 2017

Toby Oliver ACS is an award-winning cinematographer whose career extends from his native Australia to the United States and internationally. Toby now resides in Los Angeles and has forged a remarkable and varied range of credits on feature films, documentaries and television.

In the United States Toby has lensed the Blumhouse Productions' thriller THE DARKNESS (aka 6 Miranda Drive) for director Greg Mclean, starring Kevin Bacon and Radha Mitchell; and in New York he shot the indie fantasy drama WILDLING for Maven Pictures and director Fritz Bohm with Liv Tyler, Bel Powley and Brad Dourif. He has continued his documentary cinematography work shooting the indie doc ROLLER DREAMS in and around Los Angeles' Venice Beach. Next up he shot Jordan Peele's (of comedy duo Key & Peele) mystery thriller GET OUT in Alabama in early 2016 with Allison Williams and Daniel Kaluuya. Toby has also performed additional photography on the features BLOOD FATHER with Mel Gibson, INCARNATE for director Brad Peyton (San Andreas) and STEPHANIE with director Akiva Goldsman (Oscar winner for A Beautiful Mind). Toby finished up a busy 2016 with back to back shoots for Leigh Whanells's INSIDIOUS: CHAPTER 4 for director Adam Robitel, followed by writer/director Chris Landon's thriller HALF TO DEATH for Universal.

A graduate of Melbourne's renowned Swinburne Film School, Toby went on in his early career to create many notable film images, from the 'beautifully lit' gritty black and white of his debut feature EVERYNIGHT... EVERYNIGHT which premiered at Venice, to the box-office hit teen movie and AFI (Australian Film Institute) winner LOOKING FOR ALIBRANDI; and the 'painterly approach' of TOM WHITE, winner of the ACS (Australian Cinematographers Society) Golden Tripod Award in 2005. His work has been seen at major festivals around the world, including Venice, Sundance, Sydney, Melbourne, Busan, Montreal, Tokyo, Shanghai and Toronto.

Toby's work on the Australian WW1 suspense war drama BENEATH HILL 60 earned him an a third Australian Academy nomination, and the TV movie BEACONSFIELD about a pair of miners trapped over a kilometer underground in a tiny cage, won a number of awards including a Gold ACS Award and the ACS Best in Show. Toby picked up another ACS Gold Award for his dynamic and vivid outback cinematography on the action-horror sequel WOLF CREEK 2, which premiered at the Venice Film Festival in 2013, and he gathered another Australian Academy nod for the glamorous showgirls of the TV movie CARLOTTA. Toby has also worked extensively in mainland China, shooting the hit Chinese language rom-com WAITING ALONE in Beijing and also the Australia/China co-production 33 POSTCARDS starring Guy Pearce.

Toby is an accredited member of the Australian Cinematographers Society (ACS) since 2004, and a member of the Australian Academy of Cinema and Television Arts (AACTA) and IATSE Local 600.
